The government regulations state that all Church buildings and burial places in Northern Ireland are to be closed immediately. The closure was therefore a decision of government and not by order of the Archdiocese. Please note that any change to this position could only come about if the law itself is changed.

Due to the Coronavirus a large number of our more vulnerable residents are now housebound and may be experiencing loneliness. Mid Ulster Council has started a befriending scheme to help residents with a regular call to check on their wellbeing. If you would like to refer someone to receive a befriending call please email pcsp@midulstercouncil.org
